

Book Study: Interpretation

Date: _____

Text: _____ Title: _____

Save this sheet for last in your study of the book after you've studied chapter by chapter. Review and revise your list of the author's major connections between sections of the book. List them below and state the law of composition and the specific connection for each—e.g., Continuity - "the Word of God grew and multiplied" and similar statements, 5 times. Then analyze and state the significance of each connection for the original writer to his readers. Finally, think through and write the ongoing, lasting principle for today.

Connection	Significance to original readers?	Ongoing significance (principle) for today
1st Connection
2nd Connection
3rd Connection
4th Connection

Main point/main truth: _____

What is main thing God telling me through this book and what will I do about it? _____

